THE SMALL THINGS OF A DAY.

Minor Occurrences In and About the City Briefly Put.

The Jane Mosley is receiving extensive repairs at the navy yard.
A marriage license has been issued to E. E. Laylander and Lottie M. Levy, both of Cumberland, Md.
At the Congressional Church Wednesday, April 22, Fred Douglas lectured on "My Recollections of Anti-Slavery Times." This lecture is given for the benefit of the free evening schools.
Any contributions made for the News-boys and Childrens Aid Society, or for the evening school funds, may be sent to Mrs. Elphinstone Young, Tenth and S streets northwest, Washington, D. C.

The twelfth annual convention of the Catholic Young Men's National Union will be held in Philadelphia on the 19th and 20th of May. There are now sixty-five societies affiliated with the union. This city has a very large membership.

The following directors of the Washington Safe Deposit Company have been elected: John T. Lennan, William H. Hooke, William H. Hooke, Francis Miller, O. C. Green, C. W. Howard, Seymour Tullock, John Bailey, and Peter H. Hill.

Stephen V. White, as assignee of an award made by the Mexican claims commission, has petitioned the court for a mandamus on the Secretary of State to compel him to pay to the relator the tenth installment, which is now held by the Secretary, and which the courts, Mr. White claims, have decided he is entitled to receive.

The citizens' committee of East Washington, chosen at the Wednesday evening meeting at the Wallace school house held an interview with the commissioners yesterday in reference to the school room. The committee requested a addition to the Wallace building or the erection of a suitable building at Thirteenth and B streets northeast. The commissioners promised to press the matter of an additional appropriation on the Senate committee.

Tooth filling made painless by the use of cocaine by S. T. Mason, dentist, 212 Fourth and a-half street northwest.

Lodge Meeting To-Night.
The following lodge meets to-night at the following places:
I. O. G. T.—Monumental, No. 23, Elks' Hall, 902 Pennsylvania avenue.
Yale College vs. Nationals to-day.

Anti-Nicotine Club.
Messrs. Luch & Bro. are the sole agents at the "Island of Cuba" (325 Seventh street northwest) for a new cigar, which, from its high indorsements and original design, must commend itself to smokers. It is a well-known fact that nicotine is a deadly poison; one drop put on the tongue of a cat has been known to produce convulsions and death within three hours. The anti-nicotine cigar is made harmless by the insertion of a small quantity of absorbent cotton in the head of the cigar. This fact has been tested thoroughly by chemical process, and is vouched for by very high authorities. In the handsome advertisement to be found on another page, headed "The Death of Gen. U. S. Grant," will be found a full description of this valuable invention. The Messrs. Luch & Bro. have always enjoyed and deserved the liberal patronage of the community, and their new attraction will doubtless add both to their trade and popularity.

EASTER CARDS AND SATIN ART PRINTS. In largest quantities, designs, and lowest prices, at Whittaker's.

Boys' and Children's Straw Hats, 50c., 75c., and $1. Shimmers & Son, 127 1/2 Ave.

Playing the Old Game With Success.
Mrs. George Ockensunder, of Soranton, Pa., was awarded out of $50 by a man who told her his name was B. E. Davis, and he was the manager of the "Bijou Theatrical Company." She answered a theatrical advertisement last week for a young lady to play minor parts. She was engaged by Davis at $10 per week. She was told that she would have to get a wardrobe. She got a remittance of $50 from her mother. She and Davis left this city for Philadelphia to join the troupe. At Baltimore Davis suggested that she give him the money, as he could carry it safer. Davis got the money and disappeared. At Harris's Bijou Theater no such person was known as B. E. Davis.

LIGHTNING ROIS of sufficient surface and properly placed are to lightning what a good roof is to rain. J. H. Kneibling.

Easter Morning Chimes.
The following programme has been arranged by Prof. F. Widdows for the Easter morning service on the chimes, commencing at 10:15: "Joy Hells," "The Morning Light Is Breaking," "Heavenly Day," "Easter Hymn" (old style), "But Thou Didst Not Leave" ("Messiah"), "How Beautiful Are the Feet of Them That Tread the Gospel of Peace" ("Messiah"), "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth" ("Messiah"), coronation "Crown Him Lord of All," "Saviour, Like a Shepherd Lead Us," "Come Ye Disciples," "Shout the Glad Tidings," "Doxology."

Don't forget the ball game to-day.

To Hold a Town Meeting.
Charles F. Adams, of the civil service commission, asks the commissioners the privilege of using one of the court rooms at the city hall, May 1, for the purpose of organizing a "town meeting," or more properly a national parliament. The object is "to incite and assist citizens to adopt and carry out wise and just views of public policy, develop and make complete the political aptitudes of individuals, and to exercise a proper influence on the conduct of real government."

Session of the Scientists.
At the session of the National Academy of Science yesterday Prof. Alexander Graham Bell talked to the academy about the deaf and dumb of Martha's Vineyard. Prof. Ogden N. Rood presented a color contrast, and Civil Engineer R. E. Perry, of the navy, read a paper on "The Exploration of Greenland." Other papers were read, after which the academy finally adjourned.

Most files are all depositing their eggs; put your furs on storage at Simons & Son, 1227 F Street.

Looking Up the Question.
"Have the commissioners a right to annul a license to sell liquor by the wholesale?" was the question raised in the police court yesterday by Messrs. John E. Norris and John A. Clarke, counsel for Christian State, of Fifth street and Massachusetts avenue. The court thought the matter an important one, and he reserved his decision to look up this question.

The Last Hours of Lent.

Yesterday being Good Friday, the day was properly observed by nearly all the city churches. The public schools and courts were closed. Large congregations were present at the afternoon services held in the Metropolitan and Foundry M. E. churches. At night Columbia Commandery, K. T., attended in a body at the special services for them at Foundry Church. Rev. Dr. Naylor preached. During the week the choir of the churches have been rehearsing the music for Easter Sunday. The programme, as arranged in many of the churches, indicates that the music will be of the finest, and the decorations of the most elaborate character. Easter Monday will be given over to egg-rolling, and children will be seen at all the parks enjoying the day.

"FLORENCE HOT STOVES," for summer cooking, sold by J. F. Page, 1216 F street northwest.

Hamilton Acquitted.
The jury in the case of Charles Hamilton, charged with the killing of George Hill, on Sept. 20, 1882, after an absence of one hour and thirty-five minutes, returned into the criminal court yesterday afternoon with a verdict of acquittal.

Speculation!

*****

It was a matter of curious speculation to investors when a man first began to dye his garments and the motives that prompted him. It would be no answer to the question to say that he was prompted by his natural love of ornamentation, because there still remains the inquiry, "Wherefore the love of ornament?" It is a long stretch of advancement from the naked, painted savage to his dyed garments, but it is perhaps a greater degree of advancement yet to the great variety of colorings in modern garments.

Our Spring Garments. more appropriate than those for Winter use, have infinite variety of colorings, rivaling, no doubt, could we ascertain the fact, Joseph's Coat, the first dyed garment of which we have any accurate information.

Joseph evidently was a gentleman of taste, but, however that may be, we know our garments are pre-eminently choice selections in regard to Color, Fit, and STYLE.

We have everything the most faultless taste can suggest in GENTLEMEN'S and YOUTHS' SPRING GARMENTS.

And what is as equally important to the average purchaser.

Bear the stamp of MODERATION. TRY US!
